SCREEN GUILD program checklist

Sept. 24, 1939 through May 31, 1951 when the series was discontinued.

Fred E. Dickey; 1049 Day Road; Schenectady, N.Y.; 12303

The series started as the Gulf Screen Guild Show on Jan. 8, 1939 as a combination variety and drama show. It was unique in that the actors received no salaries but the money they would have received went, instead, to the Actors Guild for charity. Following are the shows in early 1939 that are circulating:

1. Feb. 5, 1939; introduced as 5th show in series; Geo. Murphy was M.C.; Jane Withers, Bing Crosby and Hugh Herbert guests.
2. Feb. 19, 1939; intro. as 7th show; Song of Clotilda; Rbt. Taylor and Jeanette MacDonald.
3. March 5, 1939; 9th show in series; Bridge of Mercy; Paul Muni; Joe. Hutchinson, Lionel Atwill. See last page

Dear RADIO GUIDE: Are there any regular feminine stars of "The Shadow," radio mystery thriller? Who are they?—Franklin, San Francisco, Cal.

Marjorie Anderson is the only regular feminine actress of "The Shadow" (MBS, Sunday), but recently fans have been hearing pretty Joan Tetzel (above) in various ingenue roles. Miss Tetzel adds a refreshing dash of glamour to mystery.—El
